 Mrs. Maudie J. Strick having been duly sworn deposed as follows: I have seen a will of my late husband. I had it in my hand and read it it was in a small drawer of the sofa I had it on Wednesday evening week before he died. I kept the key of the sofa drawer containing the will and no one else had access to that drawer except when it was pointed open, and the contents removed by some person unknown to me. On the Friday before he died he asked me if I knew where the will was. He was in sound mind He never had it after Friday before he died. Because he didn't - couldn't leave his room.
 Went to Montgomery got back took to bed Sunday even after his death I looked for it, Tuesday after his death. I found the drawer had been pried open and the will and part of the money was gone. A Book was also with him containing sofa account. I examined all papers in each pocket in all places in sofa, through clothing. Examined all his papers in sofa and saw when that he kept his valuable papers. I never found it. Having heard read an original memorandum of the will as made by W. D. Budgeon read in open court I recollect and state it to be substantially the will as I recollect it. My husband never destroyed the will. The sofa was kept in the store Robert J. Strick was in the store every day. His custom to be around there. Friday forenoon about 10 o'clock Mr. Strick spoke about the will no one was present, he asked them all to go out. He asked me if I knew where the will was and I told him that I did. He then asked if anyone else knew where the will was and I told him I did not know whether they did or not. I don't recall I remember of his speaking about the will. The will that I saw and read
