

Dedication of Hugo Black Monument and Park
Saturday, October 15, 2022
Ashland, Alabama

Dedication Day Schedule of Public Events

11:00 AM Official Unveiling of the Justice Black portrait by Simmie Knox
Hugo Black Courtroom, Clay County Courthouse
25 Court Square, Ashland, AL 36251

- Judge John Rochester, presiding
- Linda Rochester, Bruce Sims, Judge William Hereford, local hosts
- Program:
 - Introduction of Justice Black's grandchildren and great grandchildren
 - Recognition of local family members
 - Words of Appreciation: William Whatley (grandson of Justice Black's lifelong friend)
 - Unveiling of the Portrait

2:00 PM Dedication Ceremony for the Hugo Black Monument and Park
82591 Alabama Highway 9, Ashland, AL 36251
(3 block south of the Courthouse)

- Judge John Rochester, master of ceremony
- Program:
 - Words of Appreciation by Josephine Hallam (Justice Black's granddaughter)
 - The Occasion: US District Judge Myron H. Thompson
 - Dedication Address: Yale Law School Sterling Professor of Law Akhil Reed Amar
- Unveiling of the Monument by Judge Rochester et. al.

4:00 PM Remembering the Day

- Music; free distribution of Hugo Black's Pocket US Constitutions; visiting with friends and neighbors; smart phone photographs and selfies with the Monument and special guests.

Presented by the Hugo Black Fund

www.hugoblacklibrary.org

With support of the Alabama Humanities Alliance, a state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.